MANY ENJOY JOLLY DANCE AT GANGES

By Review Representative

GANGES, Dec. 18th. — Without doubt one of the most delightful subscription dances of the season was held at Harbour House on Saturday evening, which was held in honor of the opening of the new addition recently added to the building. There were between 150 and 200 invited guests present. The decorations were very pretty and most artistic, the large dining-room had been completely transformed with its decorations of evergreens and streamers of green, pink and white and soft shades of yellow and pink silk covered the electric bulbs, which gave a very pretty and soft effect to the room. The large new dancing pavilion, which is connected with the dining-room by large folding doors, was also prettily decorated, many different colored bulbs were to be seen, which gave a fairy-like appearance to the pretty decorative scheme.

At midnight an abundant supper was served in the billiard room, the table decorations were in pretty rose and cream effect, with vases of roses here and there.

Madame Buttucci's orchestra, which was in excellent form, supplied the music. Many visitors from Duncan and Victoria were to be seen among the guests.

An air of Christmas will pervade the services at both Sidney and South Saanich United Churches on Sunday first. GANGES GUILD HELD SOCIAL

By Review Representative

GANGES, Dec. 18. — The Sunshine Guild held a social afternoon for members' friends and their children on Saturday last. About 24 children were entertained in the I.O.O.F. Room, kindly lent for the occasion. The afternoon was spent in playing games, etc., and at 4 o'clock a daintily-arranged tea was served to the little guests. The tables were prettily decorated in foliage and with colored jellies and iced cakes made a pretty effect, which appealed to the little ones present — for what child is there who does not like a colored jelly? Each child was presented with a chocolate bar and a bag of candies on leaving.

Mrs. Harry Noon, Miss Jean Mout and Miss Annie Allan helped to entertain the children, supervised by the president, Mrs. Gilbert Mout. A book title contest kept the adults amused for some time. Each member had been requested to represent a title of a book, there were 18 titles. Mrs. Parsons won the prize, a pair of silver-plated cellochettes, donated by Mrs. H. Johnson, getting 13 titles out of the 18 correct. Mrs. E. Lumley came second with a count of 10, and Mrs. Fletcher third with eight.

A very dainty tea was served and a very pleasant afternoon was passed by all present.

Evening of Bridge

The lovely home of Mrs. George Clark, Patricia Bay, was the scene of a bridge party on Monday evening, put on by the members of the Eastern Star in aid of the piano fund. Fifteen tables were in play and the many excellent prizes were awarded as follows: Ladies' first, Miss Evelyn Goddard, Saanichton; second, Mrs. Butler, Saanichton; third, Mrs. John Hill, Saanichton; fourth, Mrs. S. Roberts; fifth, Mr. John Hill; consolation, Major Wilby.

The attractions for the evening, such as guessing contests, tombolas, etc., proved very popular. The guessing contest on the Christmas cake went to Mrs. Collyer, while the turkey draw was won by Mrs. Pencock, of Victoria.

Delicious refreshments were served at the close of the evening. The Worthy Matron, Mrs. Findler, of Victoria, presented Mrs. Clark with a plant and a lovely bouquet of flowers from the chapter, for her kindness in loaning her home for the occasion.

Coming-of-Age Party

Mr. and Mrs. Ward, Third Street, entertained on Saturday evening in honor of their son, Bert, this being the occasion of his 21st birthday.

The guests invited for supper were the Rev. and Mrs. Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey, Miss George Lennart, Mrs. Harvart and Miss Carrie MacWilliams, Vancouver. The after-supper guests included the Misses Rosa Matthews, Helen Cochran, Marion Cochran, Gertrude Cochran, Dorothy Calvert, Glen Jones, Edith Whiting, Ethel Rowbottom and the Messrs. V. E. L. Goddard, H. Dixon, A. Wilson, R. Hamwood, G. Lloyd, A. Jones and D. Harvey.

The evening was spent in games, contests and dancing and a very jolly time was spent. The affair closed with the singing of "For He's A Jolly Good Fellow."

Park Dance

A jolly time was had at the dance in aid of the Memorial Park funds, held last Thursday, in the Deep Cove Hall. The local orchestra supplied the dance music and dancing continued until the morning hours. The ladies of the Park Committee served a very refreshing midnight lunch in the dining-room.

A hen in Ohio laid an egg weighing a pound. And we suppose some big rooster cracked credit for it.

WATERFRONT IMPROVEMENTS ARE ASKED FOR

A well attended meeting of the Sidney Board of Trade was held in Wesley Hall on Tuesday of last week. A new scheme for harbour protection by means of close piling to the present wharf and extensions thereto, and the erection of a float to accommodate three times as many boats as can at present land there, was approved, and a decision made to press the Department of Public Works at Ottawa for its early construction.

General satisfaction was expressed at the value of recent improvements made on the highways of the district by the Provincial Department of Public Works, and the general foreman, Mr. Geo. T. Michell, was commended for his energy in this regard.

Following the requests of fishermen and others landing at the Government float at the Beacon Avenue Wharf, it was decided to request the Department of Marine to provide some light at the end of the wharf to aid navigation and for the benefit of those landing at the float at night.

MAN DROWNS NEAR SIDNEY

Joseph R. Wright, 52, of James Island, was drowned and his companion, John Wilkinson, narrowly escaped the same fate on Saturday night when their boat turned over about a mile southwest of Sidney, while they were returning to James Island from Sidney. Wilkinson was rescued in a completely exhausted and semi-conscious condition by four Swedes, who had just unloaded clams at the Saanich Canning Co. Ltd.

According to Wilkinson, Wright and he left the Beacon Avenue wharf at Sidney about 5 o'clock in the afternoon, after purchasing supplies. About a mile from shore their 18-foot boat, equipped with an outboard motor, struck a semi-submerged log or some other floating object, and they were suddenly precipitated into the cold waters of the Strait. Both clung to the bottom of their overturned craft, calling for help and gradually becoming weaker through exposure. Waves breaking over them and the water chilling them to the bone, they soon found great difficulty in maintaining their precarious positions.

In the darkness they could not see one another. Eventually Wilkinson found himself calling for help alone, and he suddenly realized that his companion must have lost his hold on the boat and slipped into the sea.

Between 7:20 and 8 o'clock Fred N. Wright, of the local firm of Copeland & Wright, boatbuilders, while standing on their wharf, heard the calls for assistance. Noticing a boat with four men at the foot of their wharf preparing to leave after unloading clams at the cannery adjoining, he drew their attention to the sounds of distress. All remained still until the cries were heard again and the four men, presumably Swedes, headed by a man named Heimick, at once made off in the direction of the ones in trouble. About a mile south-west they eventually found Wilkinson in a dazed condition and unable to talk whatever, being so numbed from exposure.

In the meantime Mr. Wright had the lines clear to Victoria in case the pulmotor was needed. The police were also informed.

On arrival of the rescue party at the Beacon Avenue wharf, Wilkinson was immediately rushed to the Royal Hospital by Fred Wright and Constable Oldham, in Mr. Wright's car, where Dr. Leleke took charge and revived Wilkinson after some time, however it was not until later Wilkinson's brain cleared sufficiently to tell the terrible story of the disappearance of his companion. Wilkinson was about next day little the worse for his trying experience.

The deceased was employed as engineer at the powder works on James Island. He was unmarried, and is believed to have had relatives in Great Britain, but none in this country.

As yet the body has not been recovered.

SERVICES VOLUNTEERED

To the Editor, "Review," Sidney, B.C.

Dear Sir:—

With regard to a note in your edition of two weeks ago re the demolishing of the old building next to Mr. Simister's store.

The destruction of this building was undertaken, not on the orders of the owner, but voluntarily and as the outcome of an appeal to the owner after the fire scare to which you referred. My brother Bill, assisted by two other residents who jumped in to help, has done the major portion of the work, without payment except for the old lumber.

It seems only fair to me that no misapprehension should exist regarding what seems to me to be a very real piece of public service to Sidney on the part of my brother and those who helped him.

Yours truly,

J. E. BOSHER.

Third Street, Sidney, B.C., Dec. 15th, 1930.

EDITOR'S NOTE:—We are glad to be enlightened on this matter. It is certainly a credit to those who volunteered to remove the old fire-trap. The citizens of Sidney, we feel sure, appreciate the work done by Mr. Boshier and those who assisted. The structure was of considerable size, two storeys in height in the front section, some 40 feet wide on Beacon Avenue and about 80 feet in length, and it required several weeks' work to remove it.

Advertise it in the "Review."

A MESSAGE

To Those Who Care!

If you knew the facts, this message would be unnecessary because you would have already acted. But it is impossible for all news to reach you, be it good or bad. Three hundred men who served in Belgium and France in the C.E.F. were PENNILESS, HUNGRY, HOMELESS and in need of CLOTHES.

These men are willing to work, but many are getting old, many are suffering physically from the effects of their service overseas.

Many of these men are incapable of competing with young men even if work were offered — but there is no work.

The Government is giving much relief throughout the country.

The Red Cross is doing all in its power.

Municipalities are giving.

Many people are giving more than they can afford. In Vancouver there are 9,000 UNEMPLOYED.

Now in Vancouver these ex-service men are being helped by the Canadian Legion, No. 19, and are served with soup and stew and good bread at mid-day.

Three weeks ago Lieut.-Col. A. Leslie Coote started and organized Legion Rest Billets in a warehouse, lent to him, at 123 Powell Street, Vancouver.

This warehouse is now heated, shower baths have been installed, beds and blankets have been lent, and everything so far provided has been given or lent.

There are now about 250 ex-service single men sleeping at the Legion Rest Billets and being served there with breakfast and supper.

Some men have already been found work.

Practically all the men are in need of good warm clothes.

Coal, Wood and Supplies of all kinds will be required to carry the men over the winter.

All the staff at the Legion Rest Billets are giving their time for no remuneration.

The winter has hardly started, when the snow comes Vancouver will be a cold place. Three Hundred may mean Thirteen Hundred. These men are not being encouraged to come to Vancouver, BUT can you blame a fellow leaving the Prairies if he can get to a WARMER SPOT?

Start Early

In any plan of life assurance the extra risk is what increases the premium that is required.

The earlier you start the less your assurance will cost.

Life assurance is really organized thrift reduced to a plan which converts the intentions of every thoughtful young man into a definite plan.

Its psychological value is as great as its financial merit.

Talk it over with one of our representatives.
